EMERGENCY OPERATIONS PLAN OVERVIEW

The Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) as a whole, including this basic plan, Emergency Support Functions (ESFs) and associated county annexes provide a framework to approach a disaster or emergency response. This plan is not intended to be a checklist and does not replace critical thinking or ingenuity. While the responsibilities written into this plan are final, the actions of an individual or organization in completing those responsibilities are up to the individual or organization and are left open for the individual or organization to adjust to the situation as needed to achieve the standing three (3) objectives below and any other objectives set for a particular incident.

Yellowstone County Standing Objectives:

1. Life Safety of Responders and the Public
2. Incident Stabilization
3. Protection of Property

It is the responsibility of Yellowstone County and all incorporated cities and towns to protect life, property and the environment from the effects of a disaster. Local government has the primary responsibility for emergency management activities. When the emergency exceeds the local government's capability to respond, assistance will be requested from state and federal government.

This plan is based upon the concept that emergency functions for city and county agencies involved in emergency management will generally parallel their normal day-to-day functions. To the extent possible, the same personnel and material resources will be employed in both cases. Day-to-day functions that do not contribute directly to the emergency operation may be suspended for the duration of any emergency.

Many of the agencies who have duties under this plan also have additional duties in an Incident Commander or Unified Command role during an incident based on their legal and jurisdictional duties.

This plan accounts for activities before, during, and after emergency operations, enumerated as the phases of emergency management. This plan is focused on the coordination/all-hazards aspect of an integrated emergency management system (e.g. role of the EOC) and not on the command and control of field operations. Duties and operations under this EOP are in coordination with incident command but do not establish incident command over field operations.
